

The National Rowing Foundation and Old Glory Boat Club will be represented in San Diego at the Crew Classic this weekend. Representatives of the National Team will be racing under the Old Glory banner at 11:40am on Sunday, March 28. Then at noon, the Old Glory Team will be racing in a special exhibition race. This match up will be a winner takes all 500 meter dash of current National Team athletes against former Team athletes. Participating for the young guys will be Olympians & Olympic medalists Dan Walsh, Steve Coppola, Marcus McElhenny, Scott Gault and Elliot Hovey as well as some up and coming National Teamers. After the race between 12:30 and 2:00 there will be a meet and greet where spectators can meet the Olympic and National Team Athletes and even get a look at their Olympic medals.

The National Rowing Foundation will be represented all weekend on the Crown Point Shore in the alumni and vendor area. Please stop by the NRF tent to show support for your National Team and come out to watch these stellar athletes perform. More information can be found at www.crewclassic.org.

